

Resource Sharing & Attribution Guidelines

Preferred Method: Direct Linking

Whenever possible, we strongly encourage direct linking to Pet-Inclusive Housing Initiative (PIHI) webpages, reports, toolkits, and other online resources. Direct links help ensure audiences access the most current and accurate versions of materials.

Attribution Requirements

If you reproduce, summarize, adapt, repost, distribute, or otherwise reference PIHI content outside of a direct link, please clearly attribute the material to Pet-Inclusive Housing Initiative.

This includes:

- Research findings and statistics
- Graphics and visuals
- Policy language or templates
- Fact sheets and educational materials
- Presentations, webinars, and written content

Recommended Attribution Language

Short Attribution

Source: Pet-Inclusive Housing Initiative (PIHI)

Standard Attribution

Courtesy of Pet-Inclusive Housing Initiative (PIHI)

Adapted Materials

Adapted from materials developed by Pet-Inclusive Housing Initiative (PIHI)

Please Contact Us Before:

- Using PIHI logos or branding
- Republishing entire reports or substantial portions of content
- Using PIHI materials in commercial or revenue-generating products or services
- Implying PIHI endorsement, sponsorship, or partnership where none exists

Social & Digital Sharing

We welcome social sharing of PIHI content. When possible:

- Link to the original resource
- Retain visible attribution
- Tag or mention PIHI in social posts

Questions or Permission Requests

For questions about use, attribution, collaboration, or permissions, please contact:

info@petsandhousing.org